

The French Australian Review

Second Colloquium of the Institute for the Study of French Australian Relations

Thursday 27 September 2018

Programme “French Contributions to Australian Life”

University of Adelaide
North Terrace
Ligertwood Building
Lecture Theatre 231
(Campus map)

Register here

or <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/second-isfar-conference-tickets-45054076957>

Programme

10.20: Welcome – Kerry Mullan, President of ISFAR

Session 1 – Chair Natalie Edwards

10.30 – 11.00: Philip Butterss, University of Adelaide

Australia's first French novelist: Marie Lion

11.00 – 11.30 Christopher Hogarth, University of South Australia

Writing home from Australia: representations of everyday Australian life in two French female memoirs from the 2000s

11.30 – 12.00 Liz Rechniewski

The Reception of Louise Michel in Australia

Lunch (own arrangements – local options will be indicated)

Session 2 – Chair John West-Sooby

1.15 – 1.45 Althea Arguelles-Ling, University of Sydney

Structures and Spaces in early to mid-19th-Century Australia

1.45 – 2.15 Angela Giovanangeli, University of Technology Sydney

Communal Luxury and the Universal Republic of the Arts: Transcultural Flows in the Art Pedagogy of Lucien Henry

2.15 – 2.45 Melissa Harper, University of Queensland

The Influence of French Cuisine on Australian Food Culture

2.45 – 3.15 Mikael Pierre, University of Newcastle/Université Bordeaux-Montaigne

Terroir of the Antipodean? French Influence in the Colonial Australian Wine Industry

Afternoon Tea

Round Table

3.45 – 5.00 Colin Nettelbeck + Romain Fathi +

Reflections on the Commemorations of the Great War

Cocktail

Keynote Address (Napier Lecture Theatre 102)

6.00 – 7.00 Colin Nettelbeck, University of Melbourne

France and the French in Australia's growth to nationhood: 1914-1945